Billing weight calculation

Compare the actual weight of the package against its volumetric weight. The greater weight is the billing weight and must be used for rate calculations. For multi-package shipments, add the billing weight of all packages in the shipment. Volumetric weight calculation:

$$\text{Height (cm)} \times \text{Length (cm)} \times \text{Width (cm)} = \text{volumetric weight (kg)}$$

6000

The rules do not apply to pallet shipments.
